Client Cash Deposits

At TD Bank International S.A. (TDBI) the safety and security of our clients' deposits are of the utmost importance.

TDBI carries out comprehensive due diligence on the banks acting as depository counterparties that it intends to place client deposits with on an on-going basis. Banks are chosen, amongst other things, on the strength of their balance sheet, their credit rating and risk outlook.

Your cash is pooled with those of other clients and may be deposited with a number of Financial Institutions. These deposits are protected under the Luxembourg FGDL scheme (see below) to a value of €100,000 per investor. In the interests of diversifying the risk we may invest a proportion or all of the pooled money in a country outside of Luxembourg. This does not affect your deposit protection under the FGDL scheme.

TDBI may deposit all client monies within the TD Bank Group. This is specifically allowed under European Union banking regulation. TDBI has an established depository counterparty relationship with TD Bank N.V. which is a Netherlands domiciled credit institution and subsidiary of TD Bank Group.

Compensation Arrangements

Your cash deposits with TD Bank International S.A. are protected up to a total of €100,000 per person by the FGDL Deposit Guarantee Scheme.
